

J39 Mogensen Chair

Designed By Fredericia Furniture, 2022

The new leather cushion for the J39 Chair utilises leftover leather that couldn't previously be used in the production due to irregular shapes resulting from the production of larger sofa pieces. The cushion is specifically designed to incorporate a typical triangular shape of excess leather, which at first glance, looks merely as a resemblance of the classic paper cord diagonals of the J39. By doing so, design choices are informed by the ambition to reduce production waste of high-quality materials.
